B A N G A L O R E.

SIR,

With reference to your letter No. G. 7155-70/ G. M. 387-17-1, dated the 29th ultimo, requesting to submit proposals for the training of the Probationer newly appointed for the Press, I have the honor to state as follows:-

During the period of probation, the Probationer will be employed in the three main branches of the Press— the composing, the proof-reading and the printing sections with the object of his acquiring a thoroughly practical knowledge of every detail of printing, keeping in view of his filling a responsible position eventually.

He will be required to attend the Printing School and to successfully pass the examinations in Compositor's Work, the Proof Reader's Work and Machine Work held in November of each year by the Madras Technical Examination Board.

The Probationer must always be prepared to carry out whatever duties may be required of him for his thorough training and must conform to all the rules that regulate the working of the Press.

At

At the end of the Probationary period, if he passes the Technical Examinations and if his progress is found satisfactory, he must be prepared to undergo further training, if deemed necessary, in Englan or other foreign country or in India itself, either in Bombay or Calcutta.

These are the main conditions under which the present Sub-Assistant Superintendents have been trained and the same may be made applicable to the new Probationer and orders passed accordingly.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Superintendent,

Government Press.
